

Out of Africa

Peter McCullagh

University of Chicago, USA

The talk deals with a 2011 paper published in Science by Q. Atkinson, which is concerned with the linguistic 'Out of Africa' hypothesis. I will describe Atkinson's hypothesis, his data, and his statistical analyses. I will offer an alternative analysis, and provide an overall assessment of the strength of evidence provided by the data in support of the hypothesis.